Flesh and Blood Does Not Inherit The Kingdom. But The Re-spirited Mind of Faith Does

Flesh and Blood Does Not Inherit The Kingdom. But The Re-spirited Mind of Faith Does. In this way “The Kingdom of God is at hand!”

All the Old Testament/Covenant, concepts were given to learn how to walk in the spirit. They are a visual collection of the concentric that leads us into the midst of the will of God that we call “The Holy of Holies”, the most sacred place that is set apart from creation as “The Kingdom prepared from the foundations of the world, for the Son of God who is “the same yesterday, today and forever” who put on the flesh to perform His task to make us one with the Godhea. This is “The Holy of Holy’s. But you see He never un-became who He always was. He became one of us then blazed a trail back to the Father then called us there to Himself saying “follow Me tgat where I am, you may be also”, for us to associate and fellowship with the originator, author and source of all things being the Creator in the New Creation. Not that it is new having never been before. No, it is new in that it never fades or wains but is always illustrious and new. But to those who don’t believe that “The Kingdom of God is at hand”, they hold out for another and call it a second coming. We however are found “in Him” not having our own righteousness but the righteousness of faith, so that when creation is removed, we are found with Him, having acquired the gift of God as seen “in Christ”. As 2 Peter reminds us that “10 But the (last) day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be [a]burned up. 11 Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness,

But remember the lesson of the parable of The Wedding cerimony. There are those who went to the world to buy what they thought they needed to enter The Bridle Chamber, to be told “depart from Me you workers of iniquity for you are not mindful of the things of God but men”. They were looking without for what should’ve been within. This is about the concentric into the midst of the will of God. Remember He spared no expense and even now. For He had said “lo I am with you even until the end of the age”. So remember salvation slumbereth not. Awake to righteousness and believe lest you be found like those who say “open unto us Lord”, to hear the reply “depart from Me you workers of iniquity fir you not mindful of the things of the world and not Me”. And “I do not know you from where you are from” because they are in the world and of the world being fixed on the idea of the Christ becoming a man again, all the while He is seated in Heavenly places calling us to Himself. This is the purpose of the gospel. For us to become like them and not the other way around. For you see the gospel is for our conversion not His. Even as the first prophecy explains “let Us make mankind in Our image snd Our likeness”. When the number for the Elect has been reached then each one will be judged according to their works (Revelation 21). And woe be to those who tuck the scriptures under their arms one day a week and never understood the things written therein. “For it would’ve been better off not to have heard the transforming truths then to hear it, distort it and go anout unchanged waiting for their change to come lookimg l8ke a new humanity. But we know that the flesh returns to the dust and the Holy Spirit preserves those who have made it their home. We know this because “we hVe an unction from the Holy One and know all things”. Even as the Christ said to us on His way back to the middle of the concentric “A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me, because I go to the Father.”

The caveat here is as He said to “follow Me tgat where I am you may be also”. But don’t forget, He said “I’ll never leave you or forsake you” so it is not as if you need to see Him in bodily form to recieve this because “more blessed are those who have NOT seen yet believe”. For they will have tge thing that is said. Remember everything that was created originated from Him. Meaning that He was around before He created. And if He becomes a created creature again He would be in costume and be a pretender and an impostor because that is not really who He is. And if He does come back with the flesh on like we have, He makes Himself a liar and that can’t be. So you see tge transformation and transfiguration is ours. Where ? In our re-spirited minds. Even as it is written in Romans 12 to “be ye transfigured in the spirit of your minds. That you may know Gods good and perfect will”.

So whatever you are thinking needs to take place for you to start living eternal life, you are wrong. The only thing you need to do is repent and believe the original and true gospel of faith as having to do with life in the spirit. “Because the law of the Spirit in Christ sets us free from the law of sin and death so that we can walk in our new life now. Repent and believe the gospel. So it is your choice what appetites to appeal to based upon your focus, here or there.
Be counted among those who have understood that “God has given us everything that pertains to life and godliness through tge knowledge of Him who has called us to Glory by virtue. That through these precious promises, we are partakers of the divine nature having (already) escaped the corruption that is in the world through lusts”, which is the disease of all of those trying to save their carnal selves. For “those who seek to save themselves will loose that, but those who loose their selves for My self will retain that new self for eternity.

We know this because we have attained to this gift in this way and no other. And the only way to do this is to cross through the eccentrics into the midst of the will of God as played out in the personage of Christ Himself who blazed a trail for us back to the Father. That just as Adam who fell did not hurt his body to be mended because it happened in the mind. This is what the gospel does, and why wee are called to be “renewed in the spirit of your mind. In this way your body is a lucky recipient to experience the life of the spirit that is in Christ that sets us free from the law of sin and death”. That “death no longer as dominance over us”. And the only way into the concentric of the will of God is by deciphering this through the pictures that we see in the parables, the Law and the Prophecies of scripture given to do so. Meaning that if you are using and deciphering scripture with any other intent than what we are conveying, then, you are violating the rules of interpretation and anger the author who will give you up to your folly for doing so. And much like the two spies with Rehab who were sent out another way, so you to may be sent searching for something in scripture that is unintended. For even in Romans 1 we read of those “who turn the image of the incoruptible God into the image of a man (think second coming here). That He gives them up to do so, so they may be condemned. In this way they are trying the patience of God and if this is you, and you adhere to another coming Jesus other then the one coming to burn all the elements (2 Peter 3.10), we advise you to stop here for if your eyes see these things, and you go back to end times prophecies and such, you may reap a greater punishment for doing so. For even Peter said “for they would”ve been better off not to know the way of salvation, then to know it and turn from it, but as it is written,,, PROCEED WITH CAUTION!! Because you are now walking in the true promised land which is really not a land at all but the walk of faith. Remember, Abraham was rewarded for going out not knowing where he was going” because he realized that where he was going had nothing to do with putting one foot in front of the other. If the Israelites with Moses had realized this, they would not have spent 40 years in the wilderness. They went around in circles of about 40 mikes in circumference. This is not the concentric we are to associate with because if and since The Kingdom of God is at hand”, anything, doctrine or person that inserts any time delay imto your thinking, is a thief and a robber. God will not treat lightly those who scatter the fold about erroneous ideas that keep them away from their inheritance today. In truth the second coming doctrine is a scatterer of the sheep addicted to the daily news. But we believe the good news. That is what the gospel means. Anyone found in this Christ is in the right Christ and concentric.

Next we will work our way through the promised land where the promises take on their true meaning.
