The Law Era Verses The Full Gospel. Abraham and Moses

The Law Era Verses The Full Gospel. Abraham and Moses.

People are more disposed to protect their carnal interests and assets then to pursue and lay a hold of the truth that is in Christ. The "Deception with all lying signs and wonders", are wonders that keep them focused on the carnal realm as having an importance with prophecy as though other events are necessary to lend to the cause of their completion of godliness, meaning likeness, the acquisition of our duplication of the Father Himself of being made in His image and likeness.

A father is most pleased in his sons and daughters as replications. Because of this, end times fascinations is a large trap for human souls as it lends to the lie (if possible to deceive the Elect) that something else must happen for the completion of the gospel, like a second coming that follows the re-branding of the Jewish expectation of a temple and more animal sacrifices to precipitate the coming King on earth to satisfy their carnal expectations.

We say that a good clue as to when the gospel of Christ has run its course of fulfilling the Covenant He made to Abraham of him being the father of many nations that was implemented at the end of the Jewish era that is no longer central to the gospel as manufacturing offspring of the Father, is when the gospel reverts back to the same expectations from the fulfilled Jewish culture who denied Christ because they wanted a carnally, tangible King. Even as God told Samuel not to be distraught over the people's rejection and said "they have not rejected you from ruling over them, but they have rejected Me that I should rule over them."

That until they see with their carnal eyes the Christ in bodily form, they will not believe that "He has (already) given us everything that pertains to life and godliness through the knowledge (and understanding) of Him who has called us to (exude) glory and virtue through (by way of and because of) the gospel". This is the gospel, a reality they cannot physically grasp so they don't believe.

As scripture clearly states that "their minds were blinded. For until this day (even some in ours) the same veil remains unlifted in the reading of the Old Testament, because the veil is taken away in Christ. 15 But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. 16 Nevertheless when one turns to the Lord, the veil (along with the Old Testament Law) is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libert, (from Mosaic Law era). 18 But we, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.

A gift and an accomplishment they ascribe to another coming, end times Jesus. This is blasphemy!!

So we testify and affirm with all certainty and truth that "The Kingdom of God is (already) at hand" as much now as when Christ first gave the invitation, as it has to do with the expiration of the Old Covenant with all its persons, places and provisions, in exchange for something eternal and irrevocable that does not wear out, wane nor fade, but always in its eternal robust composition of Spirit and truth , a timeless piece being "The Kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world". The one that was and is and is to come" as never having to come to be as much as it has to be recognized.

And that is the point. As we were warned by the visitation of His only Begotten saying " and the Word became flesh and dwelt among us", giving us a clue as to where we get our godliness from, meaning god-likeness as a gift to those who have confessed and had their sin removed. To no longer identify with the fallen nature we inherited from Adam and Eve. Oh no for we have something eternally greater, scripture. And we were told "and ye do well to pay attention to it till the day (of this age) dawns (in your heart) and the Morning Star (another name of The Savior) rises in your hearts". It is in our inner man that this transfiguration takes place, just out of reach of human comprehension, other then Word pictures and parables. And that is all the Old Testament, with all its persons places, sacrifices and feasts was to teach us to do, and why the Israelites were called "children" some 1200 times in the Old Covenant because they never grew up. They never converted into the Kingdom, but like again today. They will not believe in the Kingdom untill they see it with bodily eyes and this is their demise because we live by faith, which means on this side of the veil that we live with, it is all invisible to the carnal senses. And why we learn to develop our godly parts which is our responsibility of "pressing in". Why? Because "today is the day of salvation". Today is the day of the acquisition of the goods because tomorrow may not be. Remember the virgins invited into the bridal chamber, who in turn went to the world to buy their garments for the feast to come back and find the door closed and the ceremony in prossess to be told "depart from Me you workers of iniquity for I do not know you from where you are from", because they thought it was a carnal event. Ouch! Oh the pain and agony of lost opportunity. Coulda, shoulda, woulda, but we though it had to do with a second coming after end times events, which is really nothing but a recycling old and expired Law age prophecies that only brought you to the cross. Even as John was beheaded to emphasize the end of the Law era with its pearsons places, feasts and expectations that they were condemned for. Remember, that whole culture was warned and they said "yah, His blood be upon us and our children. Where do you think you line up with that? Selah!

To this we say, STOP Looking for physical happenings lest this day of acquisition pass you by leaving you stuck on the same carnal expectation as the Jews of old. They will not get their Messiah, they already got Him, despised and rejected Him, and just a soon as have Him killed then for them to die to the things of this age that are temporary. For this we say "Those who seek to save their lives will loose it and those that loose their lives for the gospel, obtain eternal infamy. And as the Christ just hours before the Jews attempted to murder Him, He said, "you have rightly called Me King, however My kingdom is not from here (dismissing that whole Old Covenant, Jewish era that was "added to make sin exceedingly sinful"). Who finished by saying "if it were I would sen a legion of angels to fight, but hence My Kingdom is not from here". As having to do with creation.

And today not only the Satanically, god of this age resurrected Jews anticipate the same scenario as them, but also the bulk of Christianity today believes in another coming Jesus to again satisfy the demands of Old covenant scriptures as having any relevance, showing their blatant disregard of His words. To which we say, "you cannot put New wine into old wine skins lest they break, and vise versa. The Old and New Covenants do not coexist. Even as the writer of Hebrews put it "He takes away the first to establish the second"

So if you're get this, then your slate of understanding should be clean and clear to move forward into your inheritance whose bequeath-ment was assured and insured at the cross. That the cross of Christ is our starting point whereby He said "I go back to the Father and you see Me again no more", at least in a carnal way. He only put on the flesh to show us how to put it off as having power. Not the body so much as a body of expectations for self preservation, the symptom of end times seekers need to have another form of saving in competition with the cross called a "second coming, a saying not even found once in scripture.

Not as though we need to put off the human embodiment but just the "body of the sins of the flesh" as it pertains to us "being renewed in the spirit of your mind" from those falsities. For you to get on with "working out your own salvation with fear and trembling" because this is your stewardship you must answer for, as having to do your personal crossover only imaged for instructive purposes with the crossings of the Red Sea, the Jordan river, and just the simple new covenant baptisms that all teach the same renewal symbology of crossing over from death to life. To be buried in the likeness of Christ's death, to walk into newness of life as having a walk in the spirit which now qualifies one to be a pilgrim and a sojourner in this world, all the while they keep their physical address that has no spiritual bearing. This is why the disciples could be told to "go throughout the world teaching and preaching that the Kingdom of God is at hand", meaning it is mentally and spiritually within reach anywhere "two or more are gathered in My name? There am I in their midst". That those who are "In Christ" are in the New Covenant and the New Creation. New because it does not age. It is the replacement of the Old Covenant" as the "new and living way to the Father", being seated far above all principalities in this age and the coming age as a foregone conclusion. And if you can grasp this as truth, "for the Father is spirit and truth and seeketh such"? Such are we.

And because "such are we", we refuse to lend cause or credence, or any recognition of any other coming Jesus to another culture of Jews as having to do with the New Covenant Kingdom. It is a rejection of everything that we have just expounded on. Either Christ came and put an end of that whole Old Covenant, will and testament era, a term that infers a death and a distribution of an inheritance has happened, but to re-breath live into and resurrect the old covenant persons and places is assuredly a rejection of the new, and will recieve the same demise as the Jews of old who are now extinct. They have no relevance to New Covenant realities. They are the competetor. They are the "illusion with all lying signs and wonders. And if Christ does have to come back on their behalf, it has to be with an apology for judging them for believing what all the end times, second coming seekers are looking to as a remake and a rebranding of Old Covenant, Testament, expired and putting away as inevective and needing the change. But these like the old wine better and will recieve a more severe judgment and demise as they because the New Will and Testament is founded on greater promises, garanteed with immediate results, hence "The Kingdom of God is (emphatically) at hand". The Son of God came to shatter the barriers of our understanding, lest we too fail.

And this may seem harsh but true is that "the head of prophecy was cut off with John (the baptiser). That among those born among women, there is none greater than he, but those who are least in the (New Covenant) Kingdom are greater than he. Even as word was sent from John the Paptist who asked, are you the coming one or do we seek another. And it is the whole end times seekers hell bent and bound to another coming according to Old Testament expectations, that allege with those on whom Christ wept, Oh Jerusalem and all who are alleged with her, oh how I groan as a mother Hen morns for her chicks but you are not willing". For this they were not only destroyed but made extinct. Their cause and their purpose had expired. For even today if a product reaches its expiration, it is viewed as a danger to employ, but some hw that is over looked with Old Will and Testament places and people. For we have this warning that "you know those who are Jews and are not but of the synagogue of Satan". And the truth is, the Jews as pertains to scripture are as irrelevant as the covenant itself. We are now commended to "Heavenly Jerusalem, the Mother of us all", as "coming down from Heaven ", and not a carnal composition at all.

It is unfortunate for some to have to have laid this foundation to be able to move forward but we have much groung to cover. For you see being a sojourner makes you still a seeker and unacquired in part. For we do have the tools for our completion, or it could not be said that "there remains a rest for the people of God, that they may rest from their labors as God did His. And in this place, they shall not enter, although the works were from the foundations of the world, and in this place they shall not enter. Beware lest any of you fallow the same example of unbelief with a certain judgment. For the gospel was preached to them as well as us but not being mixed with faith. And faith is the substance of the things that had been hoped for, the evidence that there are things that are unseen". It is these unseen things that are real that do not appeal to the carnal senses that begs the request, "you need to be born again". If you are not keen to this, read John 3. That only those who are born again can see the Kingdom, and only those born from above can enter this Kingdom as do we. However, those aligned with the Jewish movement today cannot, and will not let go of their carnal expectations and if they don't, they will likewise perish as did the real Jews.

So then, having laid this foundation, let us go forward. But please don't waste your time with this if you are unsettled about what we've just laid out before you, Work on that first lest you be found fighting against God Himself and acquiring your own judgment as rejecting the truth. Come back when you are ready. If you are feeling antagonistic to what we've just discussed, if you continue as a rejecter of such, woe is you. For it wouldve been better off not to hear the truth, then to hear it and reject it, But as a true proverb is written as a dog returns to its vomit and a pig having been cleaned returns to wallowing in the mire so do these too. For it woud'vr been better for them not to have heard the truth, then to hear it and turn from it. Woe is them. ENTER THEN AT YOUR OWN RISK!!

Chapter 2.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood but against the powers and principalities rulers of this age

For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God for pulling down strongholds, concepts and every high thing that vaults itself up against and in the way of the knowledge of God, The spiritual wickedness.

For this we also have the parable of the sower and the seed saying "Master, didn't you sow good see in your field? Where then did the weeds come from? Would you like us to pluck it out? And they were told, No, let it grow till the harvest. Then we will gather the tares in bundles to burn, but put the wheat into My barn.

For you see, it is Gods intent to provide a choice in the gospel. And that the gospel can be misunderstood by those who reject the effects of the cross of bringing us newness of life and eternal living, that must be understood in the faith realm, to in turn mix up New and Old Testament principles to fit their fancy.

Because of them, we are to "pull down every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, being ready to judge when our obedience is complete". And so we do.

The Kingdom of God is still at hand in this way, but may not be much longer.

And the warning from the "Book of the Revelation of Jesus Christ", He says "12 “And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the [a]Beginning and the End, the First and the Last.” 14 Blessed are those who [b]do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. 15 [c]But outside are dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie. 16 “I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things to the church. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star.” 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And let him who hears say, “Come!” And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely.

Why? Because She is open for our endowment.

Thank you Father.

Amen!
