The Dispensations and Dispersion of Judgement

The Dispensation and Dispersion of Judgement.

In a world of organized crime, it is those at the top who shield themselves from conviction of crimes by allocating certain tasks to others, so that in the case of being discovered, the people from the ground up, being the people closest to the scene. That blame would start with them first to be diffused along the way to protect the instigator. The instigators and orchestra-tors use others as human shields to protect themselves, their cohorts and their agendas.

New,This is Satan's realm, who is also called the "deceiver" and the "destroyer" as being the source (from sorcery) and the originator of such schemes and why he is also called the god of this age. This all started when Adam and Eve turned from God to obey, or give credence (from credibility) to another. And in doing so, the power God gave to Adam and Eve, they gave that to Satan by putting themselves under him. You could say that this started a whole chain of "subscriptions" of "submissions" of serving somethings other than God in the place that belongs to God because to subscribe is to put yourself under another. This is spiritual adultery.

To sub-scribe is to submit by agreement, to be bound to and put under to terms and conditions as "subservient" meaning "under servitude and , in service to. Defining who is above and who is below in a relationship. This is why Christ told us to "let your yes be yes and your no be no, because what ever is more that this is from the devil". Yes, the Devil and his cohorts sole obsession and objection is for total submission from the images of God called man. Yes they offer cash free services if you will allow them to put your soul under their powers. For in doing so, they trick you out of your own God given sovereignty by doing so. And when you put yourself under another's authority by submission, to "terms and conditions that indemnify them and NOT you, not only do you loose sight of your own sovereignty, but you have erected a barrier between you and the Creator God who gave you an image and likeness of Himself, to in turn offer that to another for nothing. To become subservient and serve them. After all, you put yourself under another. And in doing so, you have made them a god or godsdependig how many you have given yourself away to. This is spiritual adultery for it is thr Almighty God who is a jealous God in that He has the want and the ability to take care of you without Him needing anything out of the deal to benefit Him.

For this reason they are called "coverage's" and "coverings", and why scripture defines Satan as "the prince of the power of the air that now works in the sons of the disobedient". That all who "subscribe" to service providers of any sort, close off any interaction with the almighty God by doing so. Not that He can't but He won't help you where you already have hired or even just accepted another to operate on your behalf for that would be a breach of contract. But more importantly, God would be violating the very sovereignty He gave you as being an image of Him. For this reason God is a jealous God. And by subscribing to another is spiritual adultery, especially if God has in His word a promise or a provision that offers you the same protection as one of your service providers. So before you accept submissions and terms and conditions, you should first look at the promises of God and see if He has already got you covered. And if He does, acknowledge that with Him when you talk to Him, and let Him know that you are aware of His promise and thank Him for it. In doing so, it is like activating an agency and a power to do so. After all our God has said "I will never leave you or forsake you". I think a better rendition of that would be God saying "I will never leave you to be forsaken". That goes along with "I will not leave you as orphans". That "I will send you another comforter, another Helper. That I will send you My Holy Spirit". And in doing so "I will never leave you to be forsaken because "Lo I am with you throughout the ages, even to the end of all ages unto eternity. So unless you understand and implement The New Will and Testament, implemented at the cross. And like all "Will and Testaments", there has to be the death of a testator to activate the Will and Testament. And for this reson CHrist went to the cross with these words "Eli,Eli, Lama sabachthanni" meaning "Father, oh Father, why have you forsaken Me?" was for us to know that He, the Christ took all our anxieties and fears with Him so that when the same questions of feeling alone and like you are an orphan without, you can take those feelings and paste them on the one hanging there on your behalf to bare that burden for you. Meaning, He has not left you alone and forsake you. And you draw upon the promises by enunciating them yourselves. In this way you Segway any ill effects and fears to the cross because that is where the Son of God personally experienced all the ill effects of all dangers, threats and fears that were to be experienced for all of humanity for all time. Yes that one who has no begging or end of days, if He had to hang there on the cross for a few millenia, He would more than qualify for a just payment because a forever being is worth that much. So yes his suffering and death is sufficient. For He even paid for all the sin and short comings even for those who don't go to the cross to receive their pardon, cure and get out of jail card free for the cost of repentance. That sounds like a pretty good deal, That "On Him was laid the inequity of us all, and by His stripes we are healed". And should also be understand that "by Him being stricken, we are set free". Meaning any and all charges brought against us, become null and void. And knowing this, if you choose to hold on to guilt and blame, that is for your own ego and to do that insults the gift giver at the cross. That "He was stricken for us", has to do with being guilty. But we know "those who the Son sets free are truly free" Or in another translation "are free indeed". And if you can truly accept this gift of salvation, when the enemy Satan comes along, in one of his varied forms (think about Judas as an empty vessel that Satan stepped into), you do not need to answer him and if you do, you have just stepped away from your God given covering to do so, to engage with the enemy, you may have just put fuel on the fire. It was Christ who before His ministry and at His temptation who answered the Devil saying "Get behind Me Satan because you are not mindful of the things of God but of man". To put Him back where he belongs. He never had to say that or engage with him again because of that. Other then to take on our short comings on our behalf so that we wouldn't have to. For this reason "the accusor of the brethren has been cast down". And we do this as an act of faith. Most acts of faith are not acts at all because our act is to suppress our desire to act. Your enemy is banking on that you do, and will manipulate everything he can to have you react to him. And when and if you do, it was you who empowered him to do so. But if you keep your old man at the cross, the fearful, short tempered one that demands its rights. You keep your foe alive and put yourself on the south side of the saving of the cross where Satan still has dominion. But we have the promise that "you have (already) overcome the wicked one because greater is the One that is in you than the one that is in the world". This is as an act of faith by receiving the promise, or provision, same thing, to do so. This is the faith and the patience of the Saints. stop

We have been warned from scripture of "a coming one who is according to Satan, with all lying signs and wonders if possible to deceive the Elect". So therefor it is the Elect who do not fear nor co-down to their demands and threats, but expose them. We say that because according to scripture "we have an anointing from the Holy One (the Holy Spirit) and we know all things". Not that we know all things all the time, but that we are inextricably linked to the data base of "all things" as being the ubiquitous 3rd person of The Godhead body being The Holy Spirit.

It is as we sift through the rubble of time, history and the translations of scripture, pursuing truth by the Spirit of truth, we have "all things" made known to us, as we are able to receive them. That we can only build on a firm foundation of beliefs. Scripture is not a Hodge podge of sayings to be dumped out on a table to try to put together like a puzzle, but intricately and inextricably linked information for us to assemble inside ourselves to bo able to interact with the Living God, whose Kingdom is at hand". Not as immanent in that it could happen anytime, but imminent in the fact that it is all the time. That, The Kingdom of God is at hand for the taking as you follow the message. Just as with Jacobs ladder. He beheld the angels of God descending and ascending upon it. We know this ladder in New Testament terms as Christ, the word of God. Of whom John the Baptist said "I beheld and saw the angels (messengers) of God descending and ascending upon the son of man", and more specifically the Christ. So that as we grow in the knowledge and understanding of God, having been refitted and reformatted to retreive and relay certain information, we too become the messengers. Even as the messenger to John in the Book of The Revelation spoke as John, thinking he was Christ, bent down to worship, and that angel/messenger said "see that you don't do that for I am one of thy brethren and one of those who keep the testimony (and teachings) of Jesus Christ, worship Him". That John who knew Christ the best, mistook that man because he was speaking of things still unknown by the now, Apostle John who had his head in the lap of The Christ, at the last supper of that fateful night. And because "John 1". It is as we are transfigured and transformed into His self same image" of being "Word" as the identifiable features. Then we to become of some form of value. "To the degree to what you have obtained, so walk ye in it. That those stuck in the Old Testament,, speak of the old. Those who are in the New Testament, speak of the new. And those who have assembled them all to be honored to be "seated far above all principalities and powers, from this age and every age". That we have full disclosure with a "birds eye view.

There are those (most) who flounder between covenants. There are few in the New, and even fewer who see the end. And what we'd like to talk about is the transition of what happens after "the thousand year reign where "Satan is released one last time to deceive the nations", because, we are there. Yes the Old expired with the New, and the New has an expiration to as we understand in harvesting terms. To da da da then if not. Cut it down. That even the New Covenant has an expiration. And so you should ask, how will we know? The answer is fairly simple. When the condition of the people of the book and their interpretation of the scripture matches, or at least harmonizes with the views and expectations of the last day Jews.

The reason they had a reset, was quite obviously because, as Christ called them "you brood of vipers, sons of Satan" and "you do the deeds of your father" and "now this desolation?destruction and annihilation/genocide is upon you". Why? Because you knew not your time of visitation". And it is this last era, end of the New covenant time frame, that people look to a second coming Jesus, when He has said "I will never leave you or forsake you". And "Lo I am with you throughout the ages". And "where ever two or more are gathered in My name, there I am in their midst". Yes this one who coined the term that "The Kingdom of God is at hand". That the disciples were sent to all the world preaching this message. This can only be said of a forever beeing. And one of Christs introductions was John 1.1. In the beginning was The Word. The Word was with God and the Word was God. He was in the Beginning with God. Who also said "Lo I am with you throughout the ages". Showing us his ubiquitous nature, and also that He doesn't leave us, but many leave, or never realy accept Him as He is as the "I will never leave you or forsake you. But these never the less still look for a physical appearing. And you know what? That is exactly what the Jews of old and those who claim to be Jews today believe, with their entourage of "end time believers.

What this means is that all who fall into this category align themselves with thise destroyed in the time of Christ. Remember "Oh Jerusalem, the one who stones and kills all the (true) prophets who are sent to her. Now this destruction is upon you because you did not know your time of visitation". As something that had come and gone because they would not accept their salvation in any other but another man who exonerated them and their views. This is not where you want to be. Why? Because you are on the threshold of a similar judgment but worse. Why worse? Because not only do you have Old Testament, you also have the New you reject and that is more condemning. As it was said of those in Ninavah, "a greater than Solomon is here". But it can be said today, you have all the New Testament, meaning new testimony that replaced the old. But maybe you, like the parable of the wine skins. Maybe you like the old wine better. And if you are looking for another Jesus? You have rejected His gospel of salvation of the cross, and look to a second coming savior or rapture. These present to you an alternate saving than the cross.

To which we say, if a rapture or a second coming would be the place for your hope of safety, security or whatever, then what was the cross for???

Our objective with that discourse is to put you on the right course. To have your affections and expectations to honor our Heavenly Father, His Son and Holy Spirit as being Our New Creation, our Heavenly Jerusalem... To cease from your works and wranglings and enter your rest "for the works have been finished from the foundations of the world". Of the Christ who was slain from the foundations of the world". As eternal realities that had their debut for carnal assembledge that like the not so foolish virgins entered the Bridal chamber long ago (Joel)

The dispersion of judgment is the doctrine of Satan to have human sheilds. That instead of forcing the "Mark of the Beast". This time he will take a slower more friendly and noble aproach because that is what ssnakes do. They swallow their prey a little at a time. 2 steps forward, one step back until all your sovereiignty is gone. With the mark, it was take it or die. That put all the blame on him and his cohorts. However with their "1000 year" prison term, they came out with a new game plan.

And you may say, this is not fair because the last generation was damned the blatant push for the merk on the hand, and with this knowledge we are not safe till the Mark is re-presented because there will not be a mark. And this is a valid question. But the answer is that "but you have a word which is more sure than what we heard, and you do well to pay attention to it as to a light shines in a dark place.

But the point here is that we have better tools and insite today to retreive and protect the gift of godliness, bought, paid for and given at the cross for you to become godly. But you beleive in the lie that Jesus is going to come again at a second coming to save? You are wrong!

2 Peter states that the next event is 3.10. That is it. No more warnings, no more renewals. As Jude told us "to contend for the faith which was once and for all given to the saints". That there are no adendums, compromises or special rewards just an open door with the invitation to "The Kingdom of God at hand". As being ubuquitous and eternal. anywhere and everywhere and the reason why from the expiration of the Law era and that Jerusalem. That the 12 were instructed to leave all that and go preachng and teaching all that I hav ommaneded you. That "The Kingdom of God is at hand" from the one who said "Lo I amwith you always even to the ends of the ages". Who also told the Jews when they put Him on trial before they murdered Him. He said "you have correctly called Me Kihng however My kingdom is NOT of this age". To include old covenant and all of creation as being "the Kingdom preparred from before the foundations of the world. So we have to understand that it supercedes creation of everything that pertains to your physical senses, this it is not.

SO as long as you know this and enter that Kingdom to participate their. The beast the mark, satan and their minions cannot touch you because they have nothing to allure you with. Why? Because as Christ said "My Kingdom is not of tis age" of time and matter. We are fully vested there and have no confidence in the flesh and neither do we have any investment that we are attached to. Notdo we have any affiliates, services, subscriptions or alegiences that compete with the provisions from our Heavenly Father as though He overlooked something. There is nothing that can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ. Neither height, nor depth, nor powers or principalities. Except that maybe you are fully vested into the things of the gods of this age for the delicousies of this age as they have stolen your sovereighnty, one terms and condition at a time. One contract at a time. One social service provision at a time. Any coverages, savings and such all content for your submission to steal you away from the coverings provided through the gospel to cover you in every thing that you do for He has said "I will never leave you or forsake you. So why should we fear? What can men or demons do to me? Who shall separate me from the love of God given to us who are covered in Christ and refuse the coverages from the gods of this age, of the prince of the power of the air (waves) that now work in the sons of disobedience". Yes the www. eye in the sky is a net of capture. Everytime you allow a cookie, you have given satan and his minions access to your private parts and our God is a jealous God
