

John 14-17 found in Colossians

As we continue to clarify the teachings of Christ from John 14-17 where He says "If I go to prepare a place for you I will come back and receive you to myself" and "If you love me keep my word and Me and the Father will come to you and make our home in you" that He says these things so that when it happens you may believe" because it takes faith. That Him coming to us is not the carnally spectacular event called a 2nd coming. A concept not found in scripture. Be a good Berian and check your scripture. the term "Second coming is not found once in your bible.

Â

We can look to Colossians and see that it is written, and scripture cannot be broken that "the Father has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light. That He has delivered us from the power of darkness (before a second coming) and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of His love. (before a second coming) In which we have this redemptionÂ throughÂ His blood, the forgiveness of sins. (1.12-14)

Â

Jesus being "The way" to the Father is seen here as fact because of the blood. This is the provision from the Father for us to partake in the inheritance which is Him. We know the price is paid, but do we believe it enough to partake now? Or do we hope in another Jesus to come in a form recognizable to the human eyes, extending His hand and saying "come up hither"? He extends not His hand but like every work He does He extends His word, because He is word and word is invisible except what is manifest on a page being the scriptures and the testimony of Jesus Christ. This is His invisible self that comes to us even now and says "come up hither".

Â

He comes to us in His true invisible, immortal self and calls us to Himself through the gospel, having provided the way through His blood. Another carnal manifestation is simply un-scriptural. So if you receive the word of God, you receive the Son. His coming to us is not to the carnal senses that expects a spectacular visual moment, but he is ever present, always ready to take to Himself anyone and everyone who receives Him as He truly is. This is being "In Christ". He is made of a construct that predates all creation therefor He does not become the created or He becomes a lie. For even Jesus himself left no physical description like the pictures and portraits, for "You shall not make for yourself any image of any likeness of anything in heaven or anything on earth to be an object of worship (Exodus 20.4 10Â commandments) Any such thing becomes a distraction and aÂ distortionÂ because God in all His aspects is not of this creation of time and matter. Nor is His Kingdom.

Â

This is further why God calls us to Himself, to follow Jesus that where He is we may be also, and not a second coming. Any physical coming cannot accomplish the purpose of redemption. To be with God. The gospel does. And this is the good news. The blood gives us that.

Â

You see it was the Israelite's that rejected the invisible God too saying to Samuel. "Do not take this personally Samuel. The people have not rejected you but they have rejected Me from being their King." And so God gave them Saul.

This too is what second coming seekers do. They reject the Eternal, immortal, invisible God and trade Him for a second coming delusion if possible to deceive the elect. They trade the Glory of the incorruptible invisible God for the image of a man, something visible. (Romans 1.23) In this they condemn themselves and judge themselves unworthy of this gift of God, "the inheritance of the saints in the light" and reject the blood as their provision to the Father. These leave the truth and seek another. A second coming spectacular Jesus they call the second coming.

Â

But;

19Â We know that we are of God, and the whole world (of time and matter) liesÂ *under the sway of*Â the wicked one.

20Â And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

There you have it "the Son of God has come" and "We are In Him who is true" fulfilling John 14-17. "This is the true God and eternal life" Not the next Jesus. What you want at a second coming happened through the blood. Receive this Jesus so that this verse may be true "If anybody loves Me they will keep My word and the Father and I will come to them and make our home with them.Â

This is the good news
