

The Curse Reversed From Creation

In the beginning after God completed the work of creating, He looked upon what He had done and said that "it was good,very good". That creation would serve His purpose just fine. And that was? To bring many offspring to Glory. But Adam and Eve sinned and creation no longer treated them and their kind favorable for "by the sweat on their face" creation would yield thorns and thistles for them, and in pain they would have offspring. The creation they were to reign over, now reigned over them.

In truth mankind is the creation, and all the rest is subservient, meaning to serve under man, and that included all the orders of angels. This is why scripture says that "if anyone is in Christ, they are the new creation". And if you understand this then you know what it means that "Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

It was Isaiah who spoke of creation being corrected saying in 55;

So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth;
It shall not return to Me void,
But it shall accomplish what I please,
And it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

<sup>12</sup>For you shall go out with joy,
And be led out with peace;
The mountains and the hills
Shall break forth into singing before you,
And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
<sup>13</sup> Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress tree,
And instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree;
And it shall be to the Lord for a name,
For an everlasting sign

We see here the curse reversed. And this is not as some suppose like a physical new heaven and earth. You see creation now is perfectly capable of reflecting the nature of a man. To those whom resides "the un-holy spirit that now works in the sons of disobedience" it yields thorns, but to us who are renewed day by day by faith in God and gifted with Gods holy Spirit! Creation treats us favorably. Even as scripture says that "to the pure all things are pure", and if thine eye is evil, it only sees bad.

It was Moses who was instructed to lead by example and speak to the rock to bring forth water. On Moses's own fury he struck the rock for the Israelites and got nothing. But we speak to the rock of God and we become "a fountain of living waters". (John 7)

Everything we do is beyond the curse. We are "in the world but not of the world", meaning those born from the dust. We are born of the will of God by His Word and Spirit. The Holy Spirit is what Adam lost for him to be considered dead. Adam had a breath of oxygen to receive Hods like animals but then recieved the breath of life from God, being a pre-creation, time suspending spirit called the breath of life, different from oxygen. That is why we are baptised to receive Gods Holy Spirit, the breath of life. This restored us to our pre-Adamic condition by being refurbished inside where the original damage took place.

The glorious thing of God's creation of being "good, very good", of it being restored to that which is from the beginning by "Him who was sent as savior of the world" and "God has reconciled the world to Himself through Christ". It is because of God that the world is perfectly capable of supporting fallen man and redeemed man simultaneously. Rewarding one to work with their earthen vessel to bring forth thorns and thistles by the "sweat of their face", while the redeemed perfected man "goes out with joy, is led forth with peace" and speaks to the rock, or whatever appearant obstacle there may be and "it shall be done for you".

If this were not so Christ would not have said to the father " Father I pray not that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from evil" . And He did. By the power of His own word. God the Father answered that word the moment it was spoken like when He said "let there be light and there was light. Or like when He said " Lazarus come forth " and He did. And he didn't have to wait 2000 years. And He didn't have to wait for his own resurrection either because as He said to Mary " I am the resurrection and life". Christ did not need to become as though He needed to change or He would not be "the same yesterday today and forever". (Hebrews 13.8)

And this is another error of the 2nd coming seekers. That Jesus must become as though He is not yet and He needs to come back for another work of saving to save again and become savior again. That His blood and resurrection is not sufficient proof of eternal life right now. But "God has reconciled the world to Himself through Jesus Christ". Or when Christ said "it is finished" He was a liar.

The resurrection is His invisible self . It is the full sum of all His attributes gifted to us. This is our salvation and the saving. That is why He is Savior. That is why scripture says of the Father. That "He gave His only begotten Son so that whoever believes in Him shall not die but have eternal life". And that "He sent His Son into the world not to condemn it but for it to be saved.

Did your Jesus come yet? If yes then for you this reconciliation to the Father and you have, a salvaged relationship with the creator for creation itself back to what Adam lost. "That it is good very good". This is true salvation.

And He did not have to accomplish something for himself but for us. The cross was proof of who He already was. Salvation finished from the foundations of the world, but He was manifest in these last times for greater proof. This is why it is stated from Hebrews 2 see that you do not neglect such a great salvation ". We have the picture of God in the Son who is greater than all the law and prophets.

What was defined to Moses as being holy saying "take off your sandals for where you stand is holy ground was replaced when John the Baptist said of Christ "whose sandal straps I'm not worthy to loose. Showing the what all the law and the prophets described in parables was only dimly imaging what is the reality "in Christ". As He said "lol the volume of the book is written of me". In this way the law and the prophets have been eternally expired. They have no use for us today but to point to that one. Truly this is the Christ!,

You see when the Son asked the Father to keep us from evil, He spoke forth our sanctification, our being separated by the spirit to truth. Like Christ said "You are clean by the word spoken to you". And we are if you can receive it. This is how every good work is accomplished. His word. So it can be said of us too " the God of this age comes and has nothing in me", if we cooperate in this sanctification, if we follow the unction of the spirit to holiness, so that there are no mixtures or impurities "for it is written, be ye holy!"

We put off the works of lying, cheating and cowardliness, and every filthiness of flesh and spirit perfecting holiness, so that there is nothing in us that belongs to him who is the spirit that now works in the sons of unbelief. He operates in the vacuum of a mind void of the spirit of God. "Taken captive to do his will ". Oh wretched man that I was. But thanks be to God. I am now one of His because; as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. (Romans 8.14)

Jesus prayed to keep us from evil. And not from that only but "all the corruption that is in the world". (2 Peter ) Do you believe that Word? The words of Christ? The testimony from the Father about the Son? Who is your Jesus? Did He save you? Or does He still need to do that. If He still needs to save you then you are still in your sins. Your physical locality has nothing to do with if you are saved or not.

Your only enemy is your unbelief. That keeps you out of the Kingdom, not your physical body. "The Kingdom of God is within you" and your body can't go there. But the spirit of the mind can experience it. So the ruler of this age is judged, all powers and all flesh is subject to Christ, and creation itself is restored to that which is from the beginning God saying that "it is good, very good ". And this takes place at a future 2nd coming Jesus? No! Right now by faith in the right savior. The saving of the cross and not at a 2nd coming.

It is said that we will be judged by every word we speak? And we are. This is not something that happens at some collective 2nd coming but right now. John 3 says you are condemned already. Some people call this karma. Creation mirrors man in this way. Their judgment does not wait but the final condemnation does. You see Christ comes even today as a thief.

It is as we see Christ in His true pre-incarnate nature, that we purify ourselves to be "pure even as He is pure". We put Him on, we put on His invisible components being His attributes to fulfill the verse that says "as He is, so are we in the world". How? Spirit and truth, "for the Father seeketh such".

And just as the man Jesus walked through the midst of His enemies and they could not touch Him. Him saying that "My hour has not yet come". For us He was our hour and reason we need not fear for "by His stripes we are healed". He paid for this too. Even as Paul who knew that the apostles were set aside last saying " death is working in us but life is working in you"? A road is paved over death for you to have life eternal in the here and now. This is "the way the truth and the light". Jesus Christ is the chief corner stone and the apostles are the foundation of the city in which I reside. (Eph 3)

Christ delivered us from our enemies so that we can serve Him in truth and righteousness all the days of our lives, in the here and now. (Luke 2) This is the rule and reign of God. This is "the Kingdom of God at hand ". And contrary to a 2nd coming Kingdom of another saving by another savior to give you salvation. He reigns over Satan sin and all flesh and creation now. The only enemy left is your unbelief that He needs to put under foot. And He does this through the gospel by His spirit whom some reject. It is the spirit of your mind needs to be renewed. It needs re-scripted and reformatted. How? By word. Even the coming one whose work us according to Satan with all lying signs is overcome by the brightness of His coming" Yes by the word. In the Beginning was the Word. (John 1.1) The second coming saving from earth by Jesus gets replaced with truth for our salvation today and not in some 2000 plus years.

It is those who are floundering being unstable in the faith that scripture says "there is a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour". To who? " To our brotherhood in the world". Meaning those in the Adamic born of dust. But we resist steadfast in the faith. This is our God given task. We appropriate His word in face of the obstacles. Unlike those of Moses who cast aside Gods word because they saw giants. But Joshua was "of a wholly different spirit" who said "if God gave it to us, we are more than able to take it"? So we do. Because? All of the promises of God are Yes and amen in Christ". The first coming Christ.

So our sanctification is as we Just wrote. "Father I pray that you take them not out of the world but that you keep them from evil". And if this word is fulfilled in us then we too " shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace". Why? Because Christ reversed the curse for us becoming the curse on the cross to redeem us to that which is from the beginning when God said of His creation "that it was good, very good". And so it is again to the faithful full of faith.

We are in full power as God is. With Him and in Him. In Christ. Seated above all powers principalities and dominions in any and every age, being in the place of the age before all ages. Free from every created constraint. And we do this how? Like any good work. His word, to fulfill the word that says " he who comes to the light to clearly see that his deeds are done in Christ ". And that "Christ will accomplish that which concerns me". And " He is the author and the finisher of our faith" if we cooperate with the spirit till the end. And the end is? Like Peter talks about the reward we can receive in the here and now "receiving the end of your faith, the Salvation of your soul" today if you are listening, and not disqualified by another gospel of another Jesus.

The Kingdom of God?

Yes! Now and in every age and place and time. Repent and believe the gospel. Be ye redeemed and renewed so that for you it can be said of God's creation that "it is good, very good. Amen
