

Jacobs Ladder 2 Colossians, The 2nd coming and Rapture

As we discussed in previous articles that in 1 Corinthians 15 Paul says that Christ must reign till He has put all things under His feet, but in Ephesians Paul learned by a new revelation that all things have been put under Christs feet for Christ to be "all in all". His words are contradictory. Paul had not learned yet, he had not been renewed in the spirit of his mind yet to that revelation.(Ephesians 3.1-4) So for him "all things have been put under His feet" was not yet true. Meaning that Paul's epistles differ according to each new revelation going up steps by degree like we do. We hear a thing by the spirit, we believe and confess. Then the word is tried in our mind "hath God really said" then we receive through faith and patience the thing that was said.

Â Â This is how faith works and this is how we grow in the spirit as Paul did. That is why Paul and all the apostles are listed in Revelation as being the "foundation of the city". We stand on their works, we climb up the ladder of the revelations they spelled out. Which is why we can say that "we are now fellow citizenes, saints and members of the house hold of God" That is "if you can learn to receive it". Or... you can wait for another.Â But for us who believe? We receive an element given to us in Gods word and it becomes true for us so we too can truly say "the Kingdom of God is now" for " we are fellow citizens and members of the house hold of God... If you can receive it?

Jacob had a revelation of the place of God when he saw the angels descending on a ladder and named the place Bethel. And Christ fulfilled that saying to one who confessed Jesus was the son of God. Christ said "from here on you will see the angels of God ascending and descending upon the son of man", meaning Jesus the man with the Spirit of God. Jesus being the word of God, is the ladder of God. It is as we follow the Spirit through Word that weÂ enter the Kingdom.

So now here are more contradictions from Paul saying in Colossians "giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light.Â 13Â He has delivered us from the power of darkness and translatedÂ *us*Â into the kingdom of the Son of His love, (notice there is no mention of a 2nd coming Kingdom)Â Â in whom we have redemption through His blood". It is here again that Paul shows a deviation from an early writings of a rapture or catching up.

But there are many that do not believe that we have been translated into the Kingdom saying Christ must still come do this and they expect the Rapture or a personal death. They do not believe the verses we just quoted and expect a new physical body then but let's look at what else Paul learned.

Colossians 2:1 In Him you were also circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, buried with Him in baptism, in which you also were raised (resurrected) with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead. 13 And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together (Resurrected) with Him,

Hmm. Here it says that our body is put off by the circumcision by Gods invisible hand and I assure you that it happened in the twinkling of an eye, unnoticeable to human perceptions. No where here does it go into a Rapture, a fleshly resurrection or a second coming Kingdom, for "flesh and blood does not inherit the kingdom", meaning bodily resurrection after death. Pauls mind was washed from that carnal interpretation of Gods word by revelation. "For all the law and the prophets were until John the Baptist, now the Kingdom is preached and all (who are able to receive it) are pressing in". Are you?

Paul also says that we are resurrected the same way the body is put off "without hands" by the invisible work of God through faith which is your invisible umbilical cord to the Invisible God that becomes a highway in the spirit. And this happens when? At a 2nd coming? No. The process starts at baptism and is culminated by the trying of the words in our heart by the leading of Holy Spirit in our lives of the words that are sown, being the things of "hath God really said" that we learn to believe. Â These are the words in scripture, not mine.

Â

From Colossians "you have put off the old man with his deeds,Â 10Â and have put on the newÂ *man*Â who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him,Â These too are the words in scripture.

But it is the 2nd coming gospel that tap dances around "putting off the old body and put on a new body. They reject "putting on the new man who is renewed in knowledge" by revelation. They wait for a bodily Rapture. They expect a body like Jesus the man but it was "the Word became flesh and dwelled among us". A carnal composition is not who he naturally is. He was only flesh temporarily. He did this for us to be re imaged like the pre incarnate Christ saying "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us" but he really is not eternally flesh, and he dwells among us even now in spirit and truth. Just as He was man and God, so are we... if we have His Spirit.

Â Philipeans 2.5Â Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus,Â 6Â who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God.

Â Â And so we do.

Â Â But for those who reject a new invisible body like Gods, the scripture is fulfilled that 'they know his works but they know not his ways" His works may be seen in the physical but his ways are always invisible. It is of the physical works that they see and they think they know him, but the ways of the Spirit are always invisible in the twinkling of an eye.

Â Â Â In this is "the carnal mind that's enmity against God for it is not subject to the law of God neither can be" for they know his works because the words are visible but they know not his ways because it's invisible that made the visible for all things are made by the word of God so that what appears is made out of what is invisible so when the man Jesus was flesh, it was a temporary fixture for the living God to show to humanity His invisible components. They knew his works but not His ways as He whisks about us even now. As Paul had said and acts 17 that he has appointed times and seasons so that we could hope and groap and try to find him for he is not far from any one of us" as though we need to wait two thousand years to see him for "it is in him we live and well and have our being"

Â Â so he has given the guidelines and the parameters in which he must make manifest and we can accepted or rejected and we rejected when he expect them to become man again or we expect them to become an invisible to make us believe this is the carnal mind its enmity against God not subject to the laws of God because having eyes they see not ears they here not because it is with the heart that one needs to see and hear the things that are important to God this is the true uncircumcised heart and the truth Israel of

For the grace of God that bring salvation has appeared all teaching that denied ungodliness and worldly last we should love reaches over and just looking for the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior that we should live right to sober and just in this present day in age looking for the day in the glorious appearing of our great God and safe who has redeemed us from every lawless deed to purify for himself a people are you that people or do you seek another
