

Blasphemy and the Beast

Blasphemy and the Beast.

In any society it is an egregious error to impersonate officers and dignitaries. To go forth in public and pretend to be somebody powerful, and assert that authority is a punishable crime.

And this is what blasphemy is. It is an impersonation of character. It is the denial and rejection of the character as if they are absent, then to take the place of that person and to assert their power as if it were your own. This is a pretender, a mimicker, a wannabe, and a counterfeit.

To impersonate the things of God is blasphemy. To repackaging the things of God with ungodly, worldly things, and call them Gods, is blasphemy of the highest order. It is not forgiven in this age or the other age. And when it is done in context of God's Kingdom, it is blasphemy of the Holy Spirit.

There's a great blasphemy taking place in our day. Someone has taken the things of God. They have stolen them and called them their own. They use them for their own gain. But "We know those who say they are Jews and are not, but are of the synagogue of Satan". Yes Satan has put it in their heart to represent God in a different way. It stolen for the kingdom of the fallen. Jesus Christ said "the God of this age comes and he has nothing in me". The God of this age is cloaked with things of this age and called them the things of God. These are diametrically opposite. One is heavenly, the other earthly. One is time sensitive, the other is eternal. For "that which is flesh is flesh and that which is spirit is spirit."

It is like the two witnesses in the book of The Revelation, who were slain in the streets and the whole world rejoiced. Who are the two witnesses that were slain? Well that would be the message of the law that the Jews rejected that was fulfilled in Christ. They reject Him again the same way in the same way. And the other witness is the gospel message of "the kingdom of God is at hand". The Old Covenant pointed forward to the coming Savior, and the New Covenant points back to the cross as God's singular saving act. The name Jesus is correctly linked to the Hebrew word and name Yeshua, and means savior. There are however many today who look to another saving of another savior and spit in the face of the Spirit of grace. The 2nd coming is also blasphemous because it ascribes saving to another event on planet earth. It ascribes the saving act to another and rejects the saving of f the cross. It teaches that satan and sin still need to be defeated. In this way they kill tge message. The old and the nee have the same conclusion, the Cross. Fir there to be another saving means God and His Son are liars because scripture says God sent his Son into the world to save. If we neef anotger saving, God and His Son failed miserably. And this is what the 2nd coming message infers.

The testimony of the law and the prophets was a coming Kingdom, and Jesus Christ came and expired the law and its kingdom saying, the kingdom of God is at hand. The one they rejected and were abolished for is rejected again today as many wait for another.

That message today is a great rejection of that Kingdom and a presentation of a new coming one. And this is blasphemy in the highest order. To expect a man named Jesus to come to planet Earth and dwell among men as a men in a City built built of men's devising is a great blasphemy.

The damnation for the Jews of old is being committed again today that "although they knew God, they glorified him not as God, nor will they thankful and their foolish Hearts became darkened. They turn the glory of the incorruptible, invisible God into the image of a man. Into a singularity. They do not know the "behold I am with you always", the "I will never leave you or forsake you".

It was God who sent his son into the world not to condemn the world but to save the world. He did His saving by showing for us the way of our Transfiguration. He is the way the truth and the life.

It is that these people reject and believe the transformation is his. That He must become like one of us again so we can shake His hand and congratulate Him. Oh, what a nice man. And they call it a second coming. Whoa.

The Old Testament witness that pointed to the Cross is dead and the New Testament witness that points to the Cross is counted as nothing. It is people who from the beginning are designed by our creator to interface and interact with Him. Many have rejected association with Him by interfacing with the Beast. This thing that is ubiquitous and looks like God and taste like God but is not God. The all-knowing and all-powerful is the all wrong knowing and the all wrong power. This my friends is the "great delusion if possible to deceive the elect". For God who created all things in heaven and earth to then become the created, becomes a subject of the things He has made, is an inversion of Truth

There has been a long-term coup to collect the things, images, names, buildings, places, holidays and icons of God and call them their own. To deceive and empower for their own purposes. They work for the cause of the accumulation of these all for the harnessing of humanity and distracting them from their greater purpose of their own personal transfiguration into the glory of God, to wait for another.

Scripture says all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God, because the glory of God is what they were created to exude. But however these offer other sorts and other avenues and other venues and ways for godliness. But the one that's despised the most is our Transfiguration today. The Holy Spirit saying "today if you will hear my voice today is the day of salvation". However these have other solutions for Humanity and it's not good.

When Christ was a man on Earth, he spoke to the lady at the Samaritan well, and said the time that is coming is already here, when you will neither in Samaria or in Jerusalem worship the father, for the father is spirit and truth and seeketh such.

Christ came preaching the kingdom of God is at hand. That statement was never retracted. He sent forth the 12 preaching the kingdom of God is at hand. That call has never stop. Paul the Apostle in the end of the book of Acts preach the kingdom of God is at hand. And that is the message of the cross. Are curse of crowns of thorns exchange for his Crown of Glory. But it is the gospel message of tge cross the delivers the power of God for the saving. (Romans 1.18) Repent and believe the gospel

The kingdom of God is at hand. Just as powerful as ever to save to the repentant believing soul.
