

In your patience possess your soul.

In your patience possess ye your soul.

Jesus Christ said these words pertaining to a time that would come and test the hearts of people. Their affections for the things they have and the things they think they need, would distract them from the only thing they can possess, and the real thing God is concerned about, being your invisible part that is uniquely designed to interact with Him.

We use words like soul, heart and conscience to define this expanse in spirit and Truth, occupied by those who are of the body of Christ. Not like the body of a man, but somewhat like a political body of edicts, but much greater.

In possessing your soul, when there are those who seek to hurt or kill you, God said "not a hair on your head shall be lost" showing us that our physical body is not what we keep. That is only a vessel, a container, a bag and a rag that gets put off and returns to dust.

In truth, we are an embodiment like God is,. And not confined to time and matter, but your physical body is. We don't let that define or limit us. We know we don't keep that. As Paul said in Colossians 3. That we have put off the body of the sins of the flesh, and put on the new person who is just like Christ, not being crafted with elements specific to time and matter, but constructs of words, God's words. These all collected and reassembled inside us, qualifies us as the Elect, of those having received the gift of God seen in His Son.

To put off the body of the sins of the flesh is to detach from the services and products of this age that appear to empower you, that have you bound by contracts, terms and conditions. Do not touch, handle or taste for those that do will perish with them. Stay clear of these and you can say like Jesus said "the god of this age who comes has nothing in Me".

There are no deposits you need to return, there are no contracts that you are beholden to, there are no balances of services you need to use or perform. All your accounts are paid in full. You remain paid in full with no real obligations but to love God and the souls God has given you. In doing so, you will come clean. The god of this age comes? Let him blow right on by.

His Kingdom At Hand

Operational and Active Today

This is why the Psalmist says "Our soul has escaped as a bird from the snare of the fowlers; The snare is broken, and we have escaped." What a blessedness to be beholden to nothing but the grace of God. What tender love.

Jesus when asked about His Kingdom said "My Kingdom is not of this age" so we know where our inheritance is.

As a matter of fact, Everytime you were withheld from accomplishing and attaining to something here and denied, it is because God gave it to you, but reserved it for you in your rightful home with Him. You have lost nothing. Where your treasure is, there your heart shall be also. The things of this age comes and goes, but the Word of God is our eternal consumable product that needs no preservatives and never wears out.

For Everytime you were denied or something was stolen from you, in truth you were kept from spending your inheritance here. Thank you for your patience. Rejoice, your reward in Heaven is Great.

And from David in Psalms 11.

In the Lord I put my trust;
How can you say to my soul,
"Flee as a bird to your mountain"? According to Isaiah some of us have done that. We have taken God at His Word. We are seated in the Heavens in Christ Jesus.

In this way, The Kingdom of God is at hand.
