

The Knowing

God can be articulated to the intellect but he cannot be constructed. Nor can anything be constructed to house Him.

For God to be manufactured is an oxymoron and out of character for Him. For the maker to be in need of something being made for Him is nonsense. God cannot be manufactured but he can be articulated. That is why His Only Begotten became word for us.

It is as we receive Word, we become like word. So much do in fact we become like Them. We become one. The Hebrew word for this is Echad, and the Greek words are Koinania and Ekionos.

Articulation is an invisible tool for the invisible God. His articulation is done by words. "John 1.1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup> He was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup> All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made."

Words are Gods building blocks in the spirit of your mind. This word is defined as God's Son. Why? Because not only is he the exactitude of the father, He is also the invisible embodiment of the very things of God and the delivery mechanism from Him to us. He said "I and the Father are one". We become one with Him too.

The Son has the authority of the Father. He said "all things have been given Me in Heaven and on Earth. And because we have taken Him at His word, we become joint heir's with Him of all things. But more importantly of His things, He has held nothing back. In this way we are authorized versions for conversions. Not just to proclaim a name unto salvation, but the full message with all its steps unto the completion of the Gospel message into Glory. There is no other mechanism to accomplish this than word, the articulation of it. So we do.

And it's not just that historical references or things about God are passed on through this articulation. Oh no, much greater than this. It is His very genetics and DNA contained in the gospel passed down through the gospel, for our Transfiguration from a created being to a spirit being.

An elemental understanding of God is false because God is not made up of elements or constructs such are common to man. There are no Borders or boundaries or restrictions that God is subject to, for if He were He would not be God. He is sovereign over His creation, but not subjected to it.

God is boundless in his ways unrestricted unfettered unhindered to whom belong eternal glory amen.

No one has seen God at anytime but the Son declares Him with perfect articulation. No human has seen the Son either in His natural construct of who He was before "He became flesh and dwelled among us. Paul met Him as the light brighter than the noon day sun.

If we see the Son as He truly is being the accumulation of all the Father said, we see the Father. The two are indistinguishable.

The Son said "He who has seen Me has seen the Father. He was not talking about carnally visual aspects, or a physical portrait would be the testimony of the Son. So height, hair color, weight, nationality and skin color have zero relevance with the Almighty.

When the Son came to His own His own did not receive him, because they were expecting Him to become like them and cohabit with them in the things they had made. Hmm! But because the things made after the patterns, from Moses and David, of things only to teach about the eternal. This they forgot and became idolatrous and adulterous and missed out on the vortex to the Father, provided by those mechanisms because they sought it not by faith. They were expecting the facts

. For this reason they were turned till "not one stone was left upon another". This was God sifting through their rubble for the remnants. The left over rejects were ordered "not to depart from Jerusalem till you have heard from Me. Upon receiving the Holy Spirit they were instructed to get out. As Christ prophesied that "on them was laid all the guilt from Righteous Abel, to Zechariah whom they murdered. This was required of that generation. The sins not appropriated at the cross was laid on them because they rejected the Only Begotten, and God's final warning!

They saw not the Eternal value in that one. But to as many as received Him, not his carnal nature but His spiritual, to them He gave power to become His children even those who believe in his name, and continue to believe in Him even through the obstacles to the contrary they face along the way. This one pleases God. If you are still with us, you must be of this sort, or horribly confused.

Those who truly see Him as He is, see the Father in Him. This is why the Son said "He who has seen Me has seen the Father" and "From now on you have seen Him and Known Him".

That it is us who see him as He is in His before time construct of Spirit and Truth, as touching the invisible. To this "We are being transfigured from the glory to the glory". But to those who were fixed on the old testament teaching tools? They saw not his glory for they saw the robes and sandals only and thought He was like them. They judged the outward appearance and couldn't see who was inside because they weren't listening.

They thought the transformation was for Him. For Him to become like them.

If that is so then who transforms into whom? And if "that which is flesh is flesh" and "flesh and blood does not inherit the Kingdom"? Why do many even today believe that The Only Begotten must make a cameo appearance to pull them out of their own destitution? If He "has given us everything that pertains to life and god-like-ness"? What more must He do? The answer is nothing. You see He is seated waiting for His enemies to become His footstool". You see, He already "defeated Satan sin and death" at His first saving. There is no other saving but just a fearful judgment as spoken of here in Hebrews 10,

<sup>26</sup> For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, <sup>27</sup> but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries. <sup>28</sup> Anyone who has rejected Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup> Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace!"

There are those who were expecting a man in kingly attire on a studly horse. They were embarrassed by The Peasant on a donkey. The physical became a distraction and they saw him not as He is. But those of us who know him as a contrast to the physical understood him perfectly. Those who understood him as Shiloh riding on the foal of a colt understood that the reign of the Jews was over. (Genesis 49.)

Those who speak of Him coming again know Him not for He is already here in His original, pre-incarnate self. He is the "Lo I am with you throughout the ages even to the End". He is the same yesterday today and forever. He did change when He became flesh and dwelled among us, because in Him dwelled the fullness of the Godhead body". And if you expect Him to appear again in bodily form, how can He be to us now the "behold I stand at the door and knock. To those who open up to Me, I will come in and feed them". Hopefully you are open and willing. Amen!

This is why He does not receive his testimony from man for he knows what's in man. More carnal fabrications for fascinations and excuses.

But "we speak what we hear and testify to what we've seen", for we have eyes and ears of a different nature. We "endure as seeing him who is invisible".

He who was "born a King", need not become a king just so you believe. The Son did not come here to become anything, but to prove who he already was.

John the Apostle was explicit, that we know him who is from the beginning. He put on His man momentarily, then put it off. This is proof that he is unchangeable in character and in nature and construction.

But there is a coming one who is not yet, whose coming is according to the working of Satan "with all lying signs and wonders" and duplicates. He is making a simulation of the invisible for he walked among the coals of fire. The coming one is the becoming one who is not yet but must be for a short time then go into perdition with all who fear and follow him. He takes on the appearance of a Christ and a savior. But any carnal representation as such is the counterfeit. He would love for you to think Jesus needs to come again, because he knows that all who reject the Saving of God that has already happened, will gather to that one. This is the end time gathering of those who want to be saved in a different way to protect their earthly status and carnal expectations of Heaven on earth.

The Sons purpose was to expire all the parables and attach the Elects affection on what they represent. He proved this when he went to the father and said father I have completed the work you have given me to do I have given Those whom you've given me out of this world I have given them your word and they have kept it. The verbal articulation was completed in us. We call this salvation. In him dwells the fullness of the godhead body and because we have received His word and His Spirit, of his fullness we have received because Word is where it comes from, because Word came from the mouth of God, coupled with His breath. Not oxygen but the spirit of God we call the gift of life, the comforter and helper.

So we too can say that we all are collectively one in the father. This is true koinania, the genetic information we need to be like them is cryptically embedded in scripture for us to become the gift that is given.

The coming one is a becoming one as though he is not yet but must be and is there for disqualified as being eternal.

It is as we take all the concepts of God displayed in the law and the prophets and more clearly seen in the Son and expire them in the heavens being the regions of our mind the access is through the heart the very place of God.

The gospel message has its fulfilled purpose in us and need not take us any further. As Peter stated receiving the end of your faith the salvation of your soul. The salvation of the soul is to be restored to its proper purpose of full interaction with God. The soul is the only invisible element you have it's the only Eternal access point you have to the father and without this restoration there is no eternity.

As a seed in the dirt seems insurmountable and unimportant to the plant, for it sees no light and lives in dirt so too is the man of the Earth. But if it contains the genetics of the Living God sown in our hearts through the gospel being watered by the Holy Spirit it becomes enamored with another element. It's sites and focuses are no longer in the shell, so too with the metamorphosis of a butterfly from a caterpillar. The two are constructs of different elements and feature in contrast to one another.

One crawls on the dirt the other flies in the air. So to those who have sown the words of God in their heart and water with it the Holy Spirit, this becomes the thing that is said. Which is word. Gods Word. The very genetics of God, sown in our heart. In this way we become Godly.

There is no such thing as life and an afterlife. It is those who in their carnal body being ignorant of the things of God are The Walking Dead. They are dead to the things of God that are Ubiquitous and piercing all time and matter, without distorting them. If this were not so the Son would not of said "let the dead bury their dead". And John the Apostle would not of said he who has the son has life he who has not the son has not life. Those who have not the Son have the contrast. And the contrast will be taken out of the way for the Eternal to remain. And it is also true that the dust returns to the Dust. Those who do not acquire the spirit acquire nothing. Those are fixed on a carnal fulfillment of the scriptures acquire nothing. For this reason they are said to be poor blind and naked. Not knowing the riches in Christ they are poor not seeing the kingdom of God at hand they are blind. Not putting on the cloaking of Christ they are naked. Anything made of time and matter will be dissolved. That's why those who hold onto a construct and a hope of God becoming a feature subject to time and matter, specifically the second coming, their hopes will be tarnished. Those who put on Christ put on the very words he spoke, and become the things that He's said.

As we said earlier the son said father I have finished the work that you've given me to do I have given them your word and they have kept it". Nothing else needs to be said. This Son is the final say so.

We who have received the Son in this way as an embodiment of the concepts and attributes of God are the offspring of God. It is us who speak the words to confirm Who We Are by where we have been and where we go, the very place we are. Christ said no one has descended from heaven but he will send it from Heaven that is the son of man who is in heaven we too can take these words and expire them and fulfill them in ourselves that, just as He was and just as He is so are we in the world, because He was not a man in the world he was himself being the word the very exact expression of the Father as are we. And no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again and we see and no one can enter the kingdom of God unless they are born above and so we were. We are a kind of first fruits of his creation being born of word and spirit of his kind non element spirit and Truth.

We testify of what we hear and speak of what we seen because of the place that we have been. So that makes us a visitor while we are here we who are visitors are called ambassadors. For who can be an ambassador from a country they've never had residents in they would not be. You could only be an ambassador and a representative of something that you are a part of otherwise you would just be a spokesperson. This is what happens to those who speak of another coming Kingdom because the kingdom of God being at hand that quite obviously have not been to the place they are trying to represent.

Like a baby bird in the nest who prefers a soft pre-chewed worm so to a carnal believer is hooked on parables. This is the same as preferring the old wine for it is better, they reject the new.

Those who pay tithes at the temple pay for building projects and give in to sacrifices these are slow to receive the invisible for the visible things they did are of no Eternal value. If it does not serve as a crossover Point into the eternal it amounts to nothing but I Dollar Tree. For our Christ has entered into the heavens now not to Tabernacle made by hands but a tabernacle made by God. That is the place of our homage of our sacrifices and are giving. As it says in Isaiah why do you trample my courts with your fist in your sacrifices? Who has required this of you? It is to receive God as he is and offered him the sacrifice of praise that is acceptable to him.

If you appear at the altar to leave a gift and no not the Gift Giver The Giver becomes a taker and you leave empty-handed. To some people he appears as a thief or even what they think they have she'll be taken. In those who have an expectation of a future Jesus have nothing if you knew the Gift Giver and the things he possessed you would receive immediately the things that you asked for for this reason the son said to the disciples until now you have asked for nothing in my name ask that your joy may be full. Open to that point they were with of man named Jesus and they approached the man Jesus to ask the father for things and because their misconceptual eyes to the sun was they had no access. But we know the Gift Giver and we know the gift. All the gifts are in Christ Jesus All Things become new in Christ Jesus. You just need to figure out what All Things Are. You may look at some and think they are poor but they possess all things in this way.

For this reason John the Apostle said love not the world nor the things of the world for he who loves the world the love of the father is not in him. But we love God

There are those things that were with God from the beginning. These things are his. Everything else should be burned

If you really knew the Gift Giver in truth you would not have to ask because the things have already been given. We have been given everything that pertains to life and godliness through the knowledge of him who calls us by glory to virtue. To share his virtue we are the called. We who know the Gift Giver in this way being the recipients are now ourselves gift-givers. As it is written he who rejects you rejects me he who receives you received me we are the conduit. We are the conveyors and the purveyors of the water that doesn't cost money we are recipients of the Living Water and become Wells of Living Water.

Christ approached the woman in Samaria at the well and asked for water. Had she known the gift-giver she would have asked for the water. She said I know the Christ when he comes he shall tell us all things. In response Jesus said I whom you are seeking, I am. He left no explanation of a 2nd coming. She was filled enough to go tell the whole city. "This is the Christ". In our age there are many still waiting. God does not repeat Himself. But fortunately we do. We call it the Gospel.
