

TO BE SAFE, SAVED, SECURED AND MADE WHOLE

In the beginning Adam called his wife's name Eve because she was the mother of all living."

Ironically the name Eve comes from the Hebrew word "Chavah" and is also translated "save" and "saved". So in this words inception, to be safe and saved is to be made alive and Eve/Chavah was the mother of all living. (See reference below) So for someone to be saved, nourished, Quickened, recovered, made whole, well and repaired, to a restored life and made alive, they must be saved because that is what the word infers you are. So you can be saved from your enemies, troubles, sickness, death, turmoil, sorrow, troubles and such.

FROM THE HEBREW OLD TESTAMENT BIBLE DICTIONARY

Hebrew: ???

Transliteration: châyâh

Pronunciation: khaw-yaw'

Definition: A prim root (compare {H2331 } H2424); to {live} whether literally or figuratively; causatively to revive: - keep ({leave} make) {alive} X {certainly} give (promise) {life} ({let} suffer to) {live} nourish {up} preserve ({alive}) {quicken} {recover} {repair} restore (to {life}) {revive} (X God) save ({alive} {life} {lives}) X {surely} be whole.

In the Greek the word save has similar connotations, to live and being made alive, well and whole, free from harm and disease too. So then if someone is saved in the faith, shouldn't it include these other uses of these words as well?

Truly this must be so because when Christ came to save, He healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, made the lame walk and on more then one occasion raised the dead as well as many other "miracles ".

Here is what was asked of the Son of God at the cross ^{"42} "He saved others; Himself He cannot save? ^[a] If He is the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe ^[b] Him." Essentially He did just that because He left the tomb on His own.

We know of the accounts and testimonies of how Christ healed the lame, maimed, crippled, demon possessed and forgave sin. It is likely that most of the illnesses Christ healed was related to sin of self deprecation first and not so much as murder and theft but more so the sin of doubt, unbelief and self preservation with all the necessary efforts, means and methods that people use to keep themselves on the temporary side from eternity.

Yes, others saving you, or supposing you can save yourself or keep yourself safe through various other providers is a sin too because it involves you rejecting the testimony of God and His Son, so He gives you up to your own means. Then you have the gall to ask God to bless your attempts you impliment after you reject His offer and let Him do it His way.

That "God so loved the world that He sent His Only Begotten Son into the world. Not to condemn the world but to save. (John 3.16+17) That whosoever believes in (trusts and cooperates with) Him shall not die but have eternal life". starting with the moment they submit to His methods.

So whatever ailment you may be experiencing that may make you feel sick and bound for death and dying and all the preparations, actions and services you give into of the world that help you try to fight against disease, death and dying, are really just you fighting against your inevitable physical death to be living unhindered in an eternal way according to God in the Spirit (Eve, Chavah, safe and saved) as the gospel message of the Christ at the cross delivers without some supposed second coming involvement.

That is "the delusion having all lying signs and wonders fooling everybody but the Elect of God" (2 Thessalonians 2)

Think of the woman caught in the act of adultery. After writing in the dirt the various short comings of all her accusers who departed starting from the eldest to the youngest. Christ then said "woman, now where are your accusers? Neither do I accuse you".

A lot of physical and psychological illnesses start with people either abusing accusing themselves and others, or feelings of unworthiness. And the gospel heals all ailments associated those.

The point here is that if someone is dealing with any ailments, it is likely psychological and spiritual first. That is why the Son of God appealed to their invisible senses first. "If you can believe you can walk".

THE AUTHENTICITY OF SCRIPTURE

But now a days? These are just stories? God didn't really mean for us to believe that? Isn't that how Satan tempted Eve? "Gas God really said?" Could God really mean He could heal, deliver, save, raise the dead and such???

Well if not then just throw the book away because if any of it is not true, then the whole bible and all the commentaries are based upon false hopes, promises and lies.

Did Christ or did He not heal the sick, lame, blind, broken hearts and raise the dead? When He did, did He use ANY of the assorted health agencies of that day? So why do you need them now? You gave into the temptor, the enemy of your soul, the spoiler of faith.

There was a time when the leprous man was instructed by Christ to go offer to the priests according to the Hebrew traditional law. (Luke 5.12-15) The purpose for this was to put the law culture on notice that The Christ was here because that law culture never offered the real cure but we're on hold waiting for The Savior. Their wait was over, the Christ, healer, raiser from the dead was "at hand", another term that is blasphemed today.

These are all signs of the times and if they were put on notice back then for the obvious inconsistencies and fruits of unbelief, what kind of judgment do you suppose is looming over those today who have these testimonies and The New Covenant, eternally better than the old. Of how much more severe will the judgment be today to those who reject the Christ in the same way as the Old Testament genome?

Today we have hundreds of saviors and savings. It is not by accident that these words are used over a broad spectrum of concepts but in each case they are all mini saviors, savings, physicians, doctors and healers, but none with good results, NO NOT ONE!. They are the counterfeits and competitors with the Gospel message of Jesus Christ.

Even as God said to the Israelites "walk this way, but you would have none of it".

And again from Luke 7. ²² Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things you have seen and heard: that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the gospel preached to them. ²³ And blessed is he who is not ^[f]offended because of Me."

Anyone who is in denial of these facts from spiritual truths that minimizes these realities, disbelieves these accounts and runs to the quack doctors of today, deserves the results of slowly dying under their care. Woe is them for they cart blanch reject the healing and saving of the cross. YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED SO REPENT!!

So then where do we go from here? To the land of faith.

Hebrews 11.1-2 Now faith is the ^[a]substance of things hoped for, the ^[b]evidence of things not seen. ² For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.

Faith is the evidence of things hoped for, the proof that their are things you cannot see. By faith (in the unseen) in this way we have good report with God. (Hebrews 11.1)

Just as a caterpillar cannot understand the life and flight of a butterfly (remember a caterpillar becomes a butterfly) so too the unregenerate mind, blind to the things of faith cannot understand the things of the spirit for they must be spiritually discerned (and discovered).

And just as a wasp, bee or a bird that does not fall from its nest on its own cannot fly, so too those who fight against death today with the tools of that industry WILL NEVER KNOW "the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus that has (already) set me free from that law of sin and death (with all its policies, provisions, practices and procedures). God sent His Son to pave over death for us to live according to God in the Spirit now. But because of these egregious errors people are waiting for Christ to come again for an encore presentation to repeat the saving of the cross? Or to perform a different type of saving because the first one was unsuccessful? Blasphemy!!

Do you know that The Kingdom of God is at hand? Do you know that if we are this far off track from the true gospel, that the fruit is far and few in between for the Kingdom we espouse, then judgment is looming?

The Book of The Revelation had this to say concerning our urgency to respond correctly because the day is not far off when the Gospel will be withdrawn, the number will be filled and the doors to enter The Kingdom will be closed. Then the Angel said "let those who are unjust, let them be unjust still; those who are filthy, let them be filthy still; those who are righteous, let them be righteous still; those who are holy, let them be holy still."

The Kingdom of God is at hand.
